The Interreligious Coordinating Council in Israel (ICCI)	ICCI is dedicated to bringing together different religions living in Israel. The peace ideas in the Middle East have been broken up by religious violence. They want to unite Arabs, Jews, and Christians in Israel by their common ancestry. The teachings ICCI provides helps to stem the violence and teach them that they are all human.	Israel	Religious Tolerance	For almost 18 years, ICCI has been bringing kids and adults from different religions together through reconciliation. The group needs money to funds their programs, so people can get to know other people from differing religions. We feel that ICCI can help resolve some of the problems in Israel, even though it may take a while, but with proper funding, the Middle east may find peace.	5,000,000

The Invisible Children	This is an organization that works to alleviate Child Soldiers in Uganda. These are children who are taken from their homes and handed guns. They have made a movie about this to help spread the word of how these kids are treated and what they go through at a very young age.	Uganda	Child's Rights and Child Soldiers	Children are a very important part of society and they shape what society will be like in the future. If they are not helped now than they may loose hope for the future and turn to violence as adults. Also, no child should be treated how these children are treated.	5,000,000
